To get a little more interest, let's suggest a theme each month. It will add a little structure. They can change or take on more. Bring any airplane but maybe lean toward the theme listed.

think about it and have a little fun with it. We can change year to year.

1. January - swap meet selling and bargains
2. February - Projects, indoor airplanes EAA flight fest
3. March - Gadgets, handles, stooges, jigs, fliteboxes, and tools
4. April - Opening Day, get the engines running for the first time, check your lines
5. May - Cox Engine Day: LM Cox's birthday is April 27. Bring Cox engines, Cox planes
6. June - Stunt day, any airshow or stunt airplanes. BiSlobs
7. July - Warbirds: Any warbird or combat plane, EAA warm-up. Nats prep.
8. August - Model Aviation Day participation, Club Picnic?
9. Sept- National Air Race Month. Bring any racing airplane scale, stunt, or competition
10. October - Ringmaster day, anything Sterling or ringmaster related
11. November: Celebrate Carl Goldberg's Birthday and any Goldberg airplane Milwaukee Maker Faire!
12. December - What are you rebuilding for next year? Rebuild Clinic, what are your plans?
